

Quality assurance policy of JSC "Astana medical university"

Policy for quality assurance of the educational program of the specialty "General Medicine"

The quality of education is the key to the demand and competitiveness of our University graduates.

The main directions and principles of the quality assurance policy:

1. Modernization of the educational process:

- development of new educational forms, programs and standards;
- development and implementation of new educational technologies and training systems;
- development of international cooperation in the system of continuous education, enhancing the University's international reputation;
- increasing the role of the chairs as a decisive element in ensuring the quality of teaching and educational process organization;
- modernization of the content of education, consideration and satisfaction of the needs and expectations of external and internal consumers;
- development of mutually beneficial cooperation with partners;
- ensuring the unity of education and upbringing.

2. Modernization of the research process and innovation:

- development of innovative activities;
- development of international scientific cooperation;
- creation of conditions and infrastructure that contribute to the conduct of effective scientific research and promotion of their results;
- implementation of modern models of scientific and methodological support of the educational process.

3. Strengthening human resources:

- support and stimulation of professional growth of scientific and pedagogical workers;
- stimulating the creative activity of each employee and students and increasing their personal responsibility for the result of their work;
- increasing the competitiveness of the University's students in the domestic and international labor and employment markets;
- development of supporting infrastructure.

4. Improvement of the University's organizational structure and increase in the management effectiveness:

- improving the organizational structure;
- development and control of the implementation of strategic and operational plans;
- involvement of all the educational process participants: teachers, students, administrative and management personnel, into the process of ensuring effective management;

Quality assurance policy of JSC "Astana medical university"

- development of corporate culture, atmosphere of trust and goodwill;
- continuous monitoring of the performance of IMS processes according to the established indicators, results of internal and external audits, and sociological research results.

Qualification of the graduate:

A graduate who completed training in the specialty "General Medicine" is allowed to practice independently as a doctor in the established legislative order. A graduate who completed his studies in the specialty "General Medicine" has the right to continue his education in a residency or master courses. At the end of 5 years of training in the specialty "General Medicine", a graduate who wants to work in a specialty not related to clinical practice is given a diploma of higher medical education with an academic degree of Bachelor of Medicine.

Approved by the Board of JSC "Astana medical university", dated 19 November 2015, Minutes No. 47

Quality assurance policy of JSC "Astana medical university"

Agreement sheet

№	Position	Name	Agree date	sign
1	Vice-rector for scientific and clinical activities	F.A. Galitskiy	12.11.15.
2	Vice-rector for educational activities	G.A. Zhaksylykova	11.11.15
3	Vice-rector for pedagogical and social activities	G.Z. Khairli	11.11.15.
4	Vice-rector for administrative and economic activities	M.O. Nurzhaubay	11.11.15.
5	Director of the department of cadre work and legal providing	B.A. Syzdykov	10.11.15.
6	Director of the strategic planning department	Y.T. Tokbergenov	10.11.15
7	Dean for internship and employment	A.S. Syzdykova	09.11.15.
8	Dean of the General medicine faculty	K.O. Makhambetov	09.11.15.	